OUR FOUNDERS

THERE IS NO 'RIGHT TIME.' THERE IS JUST TIME AND WHAT YOU CHOOSE TO DO WITH IT.

I live in your mind as
'yesterday'
I live in your imagination as
'tomorrow'
You enjoy me as 'yesterday'
Fear me as 'tomorrow'
You gather 'memories' of me
But rarely remember
'moments' of me.
You see me as good or bad
Can you not see me 'as' I am? Don't keep looking at me

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A WRIST WATCH

I am a tiny little thing but I am very useful. It is my duty to tell the correct time every minute. I teach people to be punctual and to keep their promises.

I was born in Switzerland which is well-known all over the world for the production of my kind. I was packed very carefully in a beautiful box and shipped off to different countries. I was to be a lady's watch-so I was particularly tiny and attractive in appearance. I was placed in the glass show-case of a dealer where I continued to attract great deal of attention of all passers-by. I did not stay here long because in a few days a gentleman came and bought me up. I went with my new master to his house. He had purchased me to be made a present to his daughter on her birth-day. The young lady was very happy to get me. She proved to be a very good mistress to me. She kept me very carefully and I accompanied her daily to her school. I served her every faithfully. During her examinations I kept on telling her from minute to minute how much time she had left.

On one unfortunate morning I slipped down from her wrist in a bus while she was going to school. I fell into the hands of a loafer who was overjoyed to find me, but I felt horrible when I fell in his hands. He took me and sold me to a man who gave me over to his wife. This lady was terribly careless and gave me such ill-treatment that my health soon began to fail and I could not do my duty satisfactorily. Her husband took me to a doctor who gave me along treatment. At the end of it I found my system a little more regular. My master got fed up with my repeated attacks of illness and decided to sell me off.

FUN TIME

FIND 12 HIDDEN OBJECTS

Kite, Fish, Car, Glasses, Anchor, Sock, Diamond Ring, Book, Sailboat, Vase, Hockey Stick, A Pot with Handle

When the word comes in my mind a sweet smile comes on my face because colorful stories of sweet memories and experiences twinkles in my mind of my second home. Here I got a new name "SMITHIAN" for which I feel proud. I miss my George Sir who taught me how to be the best among people. I usually hesitated to give answers in the class but he stood by my side and compelled me to give answers and gradually my fear swapped off and my confidence was boosted..

10 IDIOMS USED FOR 'TIME'

1. Time flies

Meaning: Time passes extremely quickly.

Example: It's 18 months at home! Look how time flies.

2. It's high time

Meaning: It's the right time to do something, or past the appropriate time to do something.

Example: Its high time we start taking healthy food.

3. Third time's a charm

Meaning: The third time you do something it will finally work.

Example: I had to ask her out three times before she said yes. Well you know... Third time's a charm.

4. Beat the clock

Meaning: Finish something before time is up, before a deadline.

Example: Although she was late to the exam, she managed to beat the clock and finished all of it 10 minutes before the end.

5. Better late than never

Meaning: Doing something late is better than not doing it at all. It can be used sarcastically if someone is very late.

Example: Rahul came late to the class. Better late than never.

6. At the eleventh hour

Meaning: Almost too late or at the last possible moment.

Example: We barely made the deadline, there was so much to do in this project we turned it in at the eleventh hour.

7. Not born yesterday

Meaning: Experienced, not naïve or easily fooled.

Example: You can't expect me to believe that the vase broke itself. I wasn't born yesterday, you were playing ball with the dog in the house again!

8. Call it a day

Meaning: To finish working on something, a day's work's been completed.

Example: We've been working for a long time on this with no progress. Let's call it a day and come with new ideas tomorrow.

9. Ship has sailed

Meaning: A lost opportunity, missed shot.

Example: I should have worked hard in my youth, now I am a broke. The ship had sailed.
